

The Ford International Weekly

THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

By the
Year $1.50

Dearborn, Michigan, August 6, 1921

Single
Copy Ten Cents

And Now Leprosy Is Yielding to Science

Years of experimenting brings a remedy

Fountain Lake, the Home of John Muir

A story of naturalist's wilderness abode

Fighting the Devil in Modern Babylon

First of a series of articles on New York by Rev. Dr. John F. Oach Straton

Jewish Jazz—Moron Music—Becomes Our National Music

Story of "Popular Song" Control in the United States

The Chief Justices of the Supreme Court

Only ten men have held this post since the tribunal was first organized

Teaching the Deaf to Hear With Their Eyes

How Chicago is educating afflicted children

Many By-Products From Sweet Potatoes

Recent discoveries prove great possibilities